EVENT NOTICE

Please be advised that the annual GoodLife Fitness Toronto Marathon will run through your neighbourhood on Sunday, May 7, 2017. The event benefits many local charities including The Princess Margaret Cancer Foundation and Sick Kids. We hope to surpass $1.2 million in raised funds this year.

We work closely with city officials to minimize disruptions and reopen roads as quickly as possible. Join us along the route to support 14,000+ participants from over 50 countries experience our city on foot.

Marathon and 10K races begin at 7:30 AM and the half marathon begins at 8:30 AM.

Hwy. 401 – Ramps to Yonge Street southbound will open by 10:00 am.

For East-West travellers, Bloor Street, Danforth Avenue, Queen Street, and Dundas Street are all open for uninterrupted East-West traffic.

Police will be at major intersections to direct traffic. Expect some delays.

For more information about the event, including detailed road closures, course maps, and additional events occurring during race weekend, please visit torontomarathon.com.

Please see the reverse side for full road closure information.
